Female Entrepreneurship in Rural India!

Maria Borelius

Hand in Hand International

How do you turn an illiterate downcast woman into a force for change? Hand in Hand has in 5 years changed the lives of hundreds of thousands of women in Tamil Nadu. By a mix of business coaching, micro-credits and social coaching these women have started more than 200 000 enterprises, and are now lifting their communities on all levels.

Maria Borelius, CEO of Hand in Hand International, will visit us and share their way of empowering women, creating jobs among the poorest and lift communities! Come and listen to how your company can benefit from the Hand in Hand work.

Mrs Borelius has a background as a journalist and entrepreneur. In 2007 she joined Hand in Hand as CEO of Hand International.
