Sweden-India Business Council is proud to present our own Mats Agervi. He has an extensive story to tell as one of the major architect's of creating IBM Global Delivery, the now enormous outsourcing unit of IBM in India. Mr. Agervi will share his story with us of the vast challenges and interesting times, from a more personal view in order to provide you with clear insight into how it is to build an organisation in India.

Mats is presently the Global Head of Business Management and Marketing at Ericsson Global Services, before this he worked as the head of IBM Global Delivery India. Before IBM he held various sales manager positions with Compaq/Digital

We encourage you to come early and network with industry and market colleagues.
